

Fellowship Program: Contemporary Forms of Psychoanalysis

ICP+P's Psychoanalytic Training Program welcomes applications for the 2019-2020 class of its Fellowship Program in Contemporary Forms of Psychoanalysis. The Fellowship Program introduces participants to the ways psychoanalysis has evolved as a relevant clinical practice for the 21st century.

Who should apply?

The program is designed for practicing clinicians, residents, interns, and advanced graduate students from mental health fields including psychology, psychiatry, social work, counseling, and nursing. The Fellowship gives participants a feel for the types of learning experiences available in ICP+P's training programs and professional community.

What do Fellows do?

Fellows participate in monthly Saturday afternoon seminars throughout the academic year, featuring presentations on selected psychoanalytic topics by faculty and graduates of ICP+P's Psychoanalytic Training Program. Readings are provided in advance of the meetings. Seminars draw from a variety of contemporary psychoanalytic perspectives, including self psychology, relational theory, intersubjective systems theory, motivational systems theory, attachment theory, and findings from infant studies.

What topics will be covered? Presentations include:

History and Evolution of Contemporary Psychoanalytic Theory	Early Attachment and Traumatic Loss
Empathic Immersion	Working with Dreams
Basic Concepts in Self Psychology	Intersubjective Systems Theory
Culture and Motivational Systems	Psychopathology and the Analytic Process

What are the additional benefits?

- Fellows will have opportunities to attend conferences and programs addressing a wide variety of current topics in psychoanalytic thinking and clinical practice sponsored by the larger ICP+P organization. The two ICP+P conferences offered free to the membership will also be offered free of charge to Fellows. Other ICP+P conferences, seminars, and short courses will be available to Fellows at the student rate.
- Fellows have the option of being assigned an analyst mentor, with whom they meet periodically to discuss practice and training issues and who serves as a bridge to the wider ICP+P community.
- Two Continuing Education Credits are available for the monthly seminars.

When and where are the meetings?

The Fellowship will begin September 21, 2019 and continue through May 2020 on the following dates: October 26, November 16, and December 14 January 18, February 15, March 14, April 18, and May 9. Seminars will be held on Saturday afternoons from 2:00 to 4:00 PM at the ICP+P office, 4601 Connecticut Ave., NW, Suite 8, Washington, DC 20008.

What is the cost?

The Fellowship Program is free of charge, other than the application fee.

What is the process to apply?

Applications will be accepted until July 15, followed by interviews scheduled with the Fellowship Co-Chairs. Admissions will occur on a rolling basis. Online applications are available on the ICP+P website (<https://icpeast.org/application-form-fellowship-program/>). There is an application fee of $50 for professionals and $30 for residents, interns, and graduate students. It can be paid online via credit card with the application. If paying by check, please send the application fee made out to ICP+P to Linda Kanefield, Ph.D., 5480 Wisconsin Ave., #227, Chevy Chase, MD 20815.
