Who should apply?

The program is designed for practicing clinicians, residents, interns, and advanced graduate students from mental health fields including psychology, psychiatry, social work, counseling, and nursing. The Fellowship gives participants a feel for the types of learning experiences available in ICP+P's training programs and professional community.

What do Fellows do?

Fellows participate in monthly Saturday afternoon seminars throughout the academic year, featuring presentations on selected psychoanalytic topics by faculty and graduates of ICP+P's Psychoanalytic Training Program. Readings are provided in advance of the meetings. Seminars draw from a variety of contemporary psychoanalytic perspectives, including self psychology, relational theory, intersubjective systems theory, motivational systems theory, attachment theory, and findings from infant studies.

What topics will be covered? Presentations include:

- History and Evolution of Contemporary Psychoanalytic Theory
- Early Attachment and Traumatic Loss
- Relational Analytic Process
- Contemporary Models of Transference and Countertransference
- Race, Culture, Whiteness and their Impact on Theory and Practice

What are the additional benefits?

- Fellows will have opportunities to attend conferences and programs addressing a wide variety of current topics in psychoanalytic thinking and clinical practice sponsored by the larger ICP+P organization. The two ICP+P conferences offered free to the membership will also be offered free of charge to Fellows. Other ICP+P conferences will be available to Fellows at the student rate.

- Two Continuing Education Credits are available for each monthly seminar.
- Fellows who attend at least seven of the nine monthly meetings will receive a Certificate of Completion.

When and where are the meetings?

The Fellowship will begin September 9, 2023 and continue through May 11, 2024 on the following dates: October 14, November 4, December 2, January 20, 2024, February 10, March 9, and April 13. Seminars will be held on Saturday afternoons from 2:00 to 4:00 PM via Zoom. If it becomes safe to meet in person, the Fellowship meetings will be held at the ICP+P office, 4601 Connecticut Ave., NW, Suite 8, Washington, DC 20008.

What is the cost?

The Fellowship Program is free of charge, other than the application fee.

What is the process to apply?

Applications will be accepted starting in mind-May 2023. Once you submit your application, interviews will be scheduled with the Fellowship Co-Chairs. Admissions will be considered on a rolling basis. Click here to complete the online application form. There is an application fee of $50 for professionals and $30 for residents, interns, and graduate students. It can be paid online via credit card with the application.
